JAC Recruitment Expands with New Office in Germany

– Commencing operations in January 2019.

New office will mark the 11th country in the global company's network –

December 7, 2018—Tokyo, Singapore: JAC Recruitment Asia, a wholly-owned subsidiary of JAC Recruitment Co., Ltd. (President & CEO: Takeshi Matsuzono, Head Office: Chiyoda-ku, Tokyo) announces the opening of JAC Recruitment Germany in Düsseldorf. The establishment of a new base in Europe is the first since the U.K. office in 1975, and marks plans for further business expansion in Europe.

The number of Japanese companies operating in Germany is almost double the number in the U.K., with approximately one-third of them present in the Düsseldorf area. An increase in the need for experienced specialists in the automotive manufacturing, trading and pharmaceutical sectors make it a fitting entry point to leverage JAC's global recruitment expertise. Recruiting for the talent acquisition needs of Japanese companies expanding into Europe via Germany, as well as fulfilling the increasing need to strengthen their international operations with local talent is an area in which JAC is especially capable.

In addition, the impending withdrawal of Britain from the European Union (EU) in 2019 also increases the prospect of a number of Japanese companies shifting their U.K. bases to Germany; the new office in Düsseldorf ensures that JAC is well-situated to continue servicing the hiring needs of these companies.

JAC Recruitment U.K.'s Managing Director, Makoto Kotaka, is expected to bring his experience and expertise on the European market to lead the new business as Regional Director of UK & Europe. Initially, the business will focus on Düsseldorf and surrounding areas, however plans are to gradually expand into other key cities such as Frankfurt and Munich.
