New Banquet Rooms

Designed by the award-winning designer, Yukio Hashimoto, the new banquet rooms' design concept, 'Wind of Light', reflects the simple natural beauty of fresh breezes, rippling waves and sparkling lights. The design elements were inspired by the hotel's iconic urban resort location, the scenic Tokyo Bay and panoramic skies. The stunning banquet rooms are furnished with state-of-the-art lighting and audio-visual equipment such as moving lights (72 lights, 2 kinds), pre-programmed LED color lighting, high-quality digital video projectors and high-power audio systems. Controls via a touch-screen system provide a stress-free environment for a unique variety of events*.

New Wedding Menus and Package Plan

As part of the launch of the new banquet rooms, Hilton Tokyo Bay also developed a new wedding concept with new tag line “一歩ずつ、花嫁になっていくあなたに。” The tag line translates to mean that Hilton Tokyo Bay wedding planners aspire to assist to-be-wedded couples every step of their wedding preparation journey; from the very first meeting with the hotel to the day of their wedding. As part of the wedding planning experience, the wedding planners will offer bespoke professional advice to help create a wedding filled with happiest smiles ever.

In addition to the dedicated service by the wedding planners, the hotel's Executive Chef, Freddy Schmidt has created a collection of brand new wedding menus.

● Brand New Wedding Menus

Chef Freddy Schmidt, who brings extensive experience from famous hotels and restaurants around the world, has been the executive chef at Hilton Tokyo Bay since 2013. For the launch, the chef has introduced new wedding menus featuring Japanese French fusion dishes. Besides the set menus on offer, couples can choose to consult with the chef to tailor their wedding menus.

■ 'soara': The largest ballroom in the hotel, 'soara' accommodates up to approximately 1,400 guests. Taken from the inspirational word 'soaring', this new name reflects the soothing and relaxing ambience of the new banquet hall interiors as well as Hilton's legendary flawless execution of events and elevation of any social or business event creating a unique and memorable experience.

■ 'G' and 'S': Two medium-size event rooms. Single-letter names highlight the new distinctive modern interiors: 'G' is coined from precious 'Gold', while 'S' is coined from 'Silver', with both names subtly suggesting their respective colors.

■ 'azur', 'cyan', 'evo', 'ami', 'neo', 'vio' and 'arc*': Eight intimate-scaled event rooms are named after natural elements: 'azur' and 'cyan' reflect the scenic blue ocean and clear skies that surround the resort hotel, while 'evo', 'ami', 'neo', 'vio', and 'arc' are coined from the words 'evolution', 'amiable', 'new', 'vio' (meaning 'Life' in Greek), and 'arc' (taken after the English word) respectively.

* 2 event rooms will be named 'arc'.
